History Knowledge Organiser – Year 1 - Toys

Were our families in the past more generous than we are now?

Sticky knowledge

Chronological understanding

- Our parents used to play with different types of toys than we do today.
- Our grandparents used to play with different types of toys than our parents and us.

Historical enquiry

- We know our parents and grandparents played with different toys to us because we have seen the artefacts and spoken to them about it.

Historical interpretations

- I can use artefacts, photographs and books to share what I know about toys in the past.

Understanding of events, people and changes

- A lot of the toys we play with are made out of plastic. Lots of them are electronic.
- Our parents used to play with toys that were plastic but not electronic.
- Our grandparents' toys that were made out of wood or metal. There were very few plastic toys.
