Reading

Read the story 'The Messy Magpie'
Complete the reading comprehension about it. Choose the question sheet you think suits you best.

Writing

Rewrite the story using the story map.
You can cut and stick the pictures or draw your own.
Can you write a similar story in your book? Maybe it could be a cat who picks up rubbish children leave behind in their playground, or a Red kite who takes the rubbish left by people going for a picnic up at Whiteleaf. You could even make this into a book of your own with pictures.

Write a letter to the humans from Morris the Messy Magpie telling them why they should not drop litter.

Art/DT

Make an animal puppet out of an old sock. You could put on a puppet show for your family.

Spring is here - Make some egg carton flowers

Science

Make a collection of items in your house and sort them into things you can recycle and things you can't.

Use some of these to test which items float or sink – using a bowl of water.

Draw a poster, either by hand or on the computer, or make a power point telling people to pick up litter and look after the environment.

Design an outdoor scavenger hunt for your family to play
