

Sticky Knowledge - Year 2 - Spring 1 - Living things and their habitats

- A habitat is a place where animals (or any living thing) makes its home.
- A habitat provides animals with their basic needs to survive.
- A microhabitat is a small area within a habitat.
- Animals have adapt to their habitat (thick fur on polar bears)
- Birds have different shaped beaks, depending on what they eat.

Sticky Knowledge - Year 2 - Spring 1 - Living things and their habitats

Draw lines to sort the animals into the correct groups.

polar bear

elephant

lion

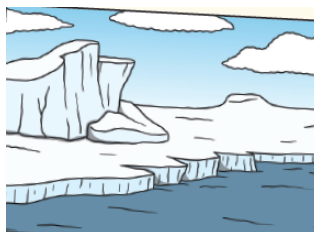

Arctic fox

polar animals

not polar animals

What are these two pictures examples of?

- Habitats
- Places to go on holiday
- Places to plant trees

Can you name the two habitats above?

Circle the animals that could live in a microhabitat.

spider

worm

orca

sheep

ladybird

ant

Match the labels to the microhabitats.

leaf litter

log pile

grass

rock pile

Choose the correct word to complete the sentences.

lives

plays

big

small

a) A habitat is a place where a plant or animal _____.

b) A microhabitat is a _____ habitat.

This is a woodland habitat.

Tick the animals that could live in a woodland habitat.

camel

deer

owl

squirrel

dolphin

mouse

Write or draw something you have learnt in science this term.