Descriptive writing

Write a detailed description of the superhero you've designed for D&T. Can you write an adventure story for your superhero? Think about the purpose of your writing. What skills could you use to ensure your writing is effective?

Letter

'Not all superheroes wear capes'

Real superheroes are all around us - Write a letter to a key worker e.g. NHS, supermarket, teacher - explaining why are they a superhero, and thanking them for all they do.

Infographic

Create a superhero infographic for a real life superhero. Use the attached sheet to help influence your design.

Science

The science of superheroes! Many of Earth's animals deserve to wear the superhero's cape: can you find them? (E.g. poison dart frog)

Make invisible ink and write a secret message! See the attached information sheet.

Superheroes!

Maths

Superheroes can be great problem solvers. Can you be systematic as you solve the 'Superhero Graduates' problem?

Look at the Superhero height chart. Can you convert their heights from meters (M) to: kilometres (km), centimetres (cm) and millimetres (mm)? Chilli challenge: convert their heights to inches!

Create a Venn diagram to sort superheroes (of your choice) in different ways. Use the example to help you.

RE

Research some of the miracles Jesus performed. Retell your favourite miracle in a poster, PowerPoint, Lego model or fact file and decide - Is Jesus a superhero? Explain your reasoning.

Art/DT

Design your own superhero - label your design and think carefully about the materials you would use for the costume. Are they environmentally friendly? Are they the best fit for their purpose? What do they look like?

Look at the attached comic strip. Use this to help you make your own comic strip, which shows your hero performing a heroic act.

Can you add any onomatopoeic sound effects to your comic strip?

Key Vocabulary

What makes a superhero?

Make a list of all the qualities of a superhero.

Add these words to the glossary you've created!

History/Geography

What famous person in history is your hero/heroine?

Nature has its own superpowers. Some can destroy our earth as we know it (e.g. volcanoes & earthquakes), some we can use and help us e.g. hot springs. Research one of nature's superpowers and create a poster to show its powers!
