

Understanding The World

Read the story 'Dipal's Diwali

Talk to an adult about what you have found out about Diwali.

Draw a picture and write about what you have learned

Cut and stick the natural and man-made light sources.

Have a go at the Shadow puppets science experiment

Home Learning YR
Theme:

Light and Dark

Expressive Arts & Design

Create the decorated elephant hand

Make a paper plate Diva lamp

Make a Rangoli pattern paper chain

Colour the Rangoli pattern templates

Create a big Rangoli pattern out of chalks outside or on a big piece of paper

Create a fireworks picture

Make an owl mask.

Literacy

Reading

Listen to the story 'The Owl who was afraid of the Dark'

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=y1iST5Bdir8>

Writing

Make a list of the animals who came to visit Plop

Which ones would come at night and which ones in the day? Divide your page in half and label one side day and the other night. Draw the animals on the correct side.

Draw and write the story in your own words. How much can you remember?

Personal, Social, Emotional Development

What are you afraid of? Use the thought bubble sheet to draw a picture of yourself thinking about it.

Communication & Language

Find out what the word

nocturnal means

Maths

Odd and Even numbers – linked to the sharing we did last week.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/b08r2l4d/numberblocks-series-2-odds-and-evens>

Play some of the odd and evens learning games.

Complete the odd socks activity sheet and the odd and even activity booklet.

Physical Development

Set up a course with a couple of objects on the floor. Make a blindfold out of a scarf and ask an adult to shout out directions for you to follow. (You might want to hold their hand whilst you are moving around) Listen carefully!

Phonics

Practice your letter formation with the Handwriting Heroes (Please only print off the letters shown in the programme – c o g d q a

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZeOOB-GVOyI>

Practice your Phase 2 and Phase 3 phonics sounds. Make a game of snap with them.