Reading

Read the story 'The tortoise and the Hare'

Answer the questions about the story (you can either write the answers or tell them to mum or dad.)

Writing

Make your own book using the story writing frame. You could write a page or two every day. Remember to use your best handwriting that you practiced last week.

Expressive Arts & Design

Design your own sports kit.

Make your own Olympic torch.

Look at the creative ideas sheet for fun games to make.

Colour the Tortoise and the Hare pictures

Make a plasticine or salt dough hare or tortoise.

Understanding The World

Look at the Healthy living and eating power point and talk about it with an adult.

Have a go at answering the questions on the Keeping healthy reading skills sheet.

Cut and stick the healthy foods into the lunch box to make a healthy lunch.

Personal, Social, Emotional Development

What are the sports you like to do? Draw a picture of you enjoying those sports and write a sentence or two about what you are doing and why you like it.

(Eg: This is me dancing. I like ballet because I dance with my friends.)

Communication & Language

Look at the 'What can I see' power point. How many can you get right?

Draw a picture then use a piece of plain paper to hide some of it – Can anyone guess what it is?

Maths

'One more than – one less than'

Complete the ordering numbers 1-10 sheet first, then you can use this to work out the one more, one less worksheets.

Try the Home learning challenges sheets.

If you want a challenge you could try the the one more, two more sheets

Physical Development

Have a go at the fitness circuit cards – challenge someone in your family to do them with you.

If you try really hard you might get a sports day certificate at the end of the week!

Phonics

Practice your phonics using the Phonics activity mats – see how much you can do by yourself.

Have a go at learning these new Phase 4 tricky words to help with your reading.
