Reading

Read 'The Easter Journal' (on PowerPoint)

- Can you spot any of this week's phonics sounds?
- Can you spot any words you can read?
- Jaya and Ali had lots of different traditions around Easter time. What do you do?

Writing

Draw a picture and write about your favourite part of the story.

Watch the Easter story (30 mins)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OPSgoPdKQFQ>

Can you make a book of the Easter story?

Or: Using the decorated border worksheet, write and draw about a part of the story that you remember.

Expressive Arts & Design

Design your own Easter egg! You could draw, paint, collage, or make it out of any resources you have at home.

Colour the stained glass window.

Understanding The World

Put a daffodil in a glass/vase of water (cut the stem diagonally) and add some food colouring to the water. After a few days watch what happens – Can you explain why?

Find out about some Easter traditions from other countries. Draw or write about some of the things you find out.

Home Learning YR

Theme:

Easter!

Personal, Social, Emotional Development

What could you do at home to show the value of the week?

Draw or write down all of your ideas.

At the end of the week, check how many you remembered to do!

Communication & Language

Ask an adult in your family what they used to do for Easter when they were little.

Maths

Create your own Easter egg hunt!

Work with your adult to draw and cut out 20 Easter egg shapes.

Number them from 1 – 20.

Ask a family member to hide them.

Make sure you find all 20! Can you put them in order once you've found them?

Physical Development

Have a go at moving like a bunny!

Can you stay in time with the music?

Phonics

Sounds to learn this week:

oi, ear, air, ure, er

1. Practise saying the sound. For pronunciation, see <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IwJx1NSineE>
2. Find items containing that sound.
3. Practise writing the sound, on its own and then in words/phrases.
4. Look out for it in your reading!

Tricky words of the week: her, all, are
